Boston, May 23.

By His Excellency Jonathan Belcher, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over His Majesty's Province of New Hampshire in New England.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have been informed, that one of the last Ships from London brought over a Packet directed (on His Majesty's especial Service) to Me as Governor of New Hampshire aforesaid, from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, inclosing an Order from His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, touching the Settlement of the Boundary Lines, between His Majesty's Provinces of New-Hampshire aforesaid and the Massachusetts-Bay; which Packet as yet not having reached my Hands, gives great Cause of Suspicion that the same has been secreted by some Evil-minded Person or Persons, in Contempt of His Majesty's Authority, and of His Government here, and with a Purpose of defeating His Majesty's gracious Intention of having the Boundaries aforesaid fixed and settled.

I have therefore thought fit to issue this Proclamation, hereby requiring the Person in whose Hands the said Packet shall be at the Publication hereof, forthwith to bring the same to Me, or lodge it with the Secretary of the Province of New-Hampshire, who is hereby directed to forward the same to Me by Express, that His Majesty's Will and Pleasure respecting the Settlement of the above-mentioned Boundaries may be known and executed, as Occasion shall require.

Given under my Hand this Twenty-third Day of May 1737, and in the Tenth Year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

J. BELCHER.

God save the King.

Exeter, May 10. On Friday the 6th Instant died here, and this Day was decently Interred, the Rev. Mr. Ward Clark, first Pastor of the Church at Kingston. He was the youngest and last surviving Son of the Reverend Mr. John Clark, first Pastor of the Church in this Place. He was educated at Harvard College, and ordained to the Pastoral Office at Kingston, September 29, 1725, where he laboured with Fidelity and to good Acceptance. He was generally well beloved, and is deservedly much lamented, by his People, and all that had Acquaintance with him. He has buried his Wife and 3 Children within these 12 Years, with the late fatal Distemper in the Throat, and since them his only Daughter with a Fever; during which Time his own Health was much impaired, and at last he died Consumptive, after about 4 Months Confinement, in the 34th Year of his Age, and 12th of his Ministry. Thro' the whole of his Sickness he professed a firm unshaken Faith in the Truth of the Gospel, and of his own Interest in the Blessing of the Promises.

He has bequeathed his House and Homeplace at Kingston to that People, as a perpetual Parsonage, deducting his Funeral Charges, and Legacies to the Amount of 90 l. (viz.) 20 l. to the Church, and 20 l. to the Poor of Kingston, 20 l. to the Poor of Exeter his Native Place, 10 l. to the Church at Chester, 10 l. to the Rev. Mr. John Sargent, Minister, and 10 l. to Mr. Woodbridge, School-master to the Indians at Houssatonnoc. Considering his Years and Gifts, his exemplary Piety, Humility, and Affection to his People, his Removal is justly esteemed a sore Loss: And (what is a great Aggravation of that People's Trouble) they are in an awful and surprizing Manner, bereaved of a Deacon too, who has been as a Father among them —— Mr. Moses Elkins, having followed the Remains of his beloved Pastor to the Grave, on his Return to the House, without complaining of any previous Indisposition, fainted away, and irrecoverably expir'd on a sudden: He told his Son a Night or two before, he thought he had not long to live; and one that walk'd near him to the Grave, observ'd him to breathe with some Difficulty. He had a great Value and Affection for his Pastor, whom he visited frequently in his last Sickness, and with him (we trust) is gathered in Peace to the Spirits of just Men made perfect. A Death so sudden, and so surprizing in the various Circumstances of it, is an awful Warning to Survivors, and a loud Call to them to be also ready.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

LETTERS of July 20. O. S. from Petersburg, which mention the farther Particulars of the Conquest of Oczakow say, the Attack of it lasted three Days, during which the Turks made so desperate a Defence, that the Loss sustained by the Russians must be very Considerable, tho' not near so great as that of the Turks. The Bashaw of the Place, whose Name is Giack-Giack, was taken Prisoner. Count Munich had his Hat and Coat shot through with several Bullets, but had only a slight Wound in one Arm, tho' several of the other Generals and Officers of the Russian Army, were wounded dangerously; particularly Lieutenant General Keith, a Scotsman, the Baron de Lowendahl, Lieutenant General of the Ordnance, and Capt. Wrangle, who went to Russia last Year from Brussels.

Letters of the 3d Instant from Vienna say, that a Colonel of the Regiment of Saxe Hilburghausen arrived there the Day before, with the bad News, that on the 24th ult while that Prince was carrying on the Siege of Bagnialuck, his Body of Reserve, consisting of 3500 Men, that lay incamp'd at some Distance, was charged all on a sudden by a great Detachment of Turkish Horse, by which the Infantry of the said Body was totally defeated, and the Cavalry drove and beat all the Way to the River Verbas, which they endeavoured to swim over, but were all drowned, except a few Soldiers who had the Luck to escape; that the Turks took all their Baggage and Ammunition; that the Prince of Saxe Hilburghausen hearing of this News, and likewise that another Body of Turkish Troops was advancing to attack him, raised the Siege of Bagnialuck with such Precipitation, that he abandoned two Mortars, six Pieces of Cannon, and a great Part of the Baggage; that the Prince, with the Remainder of the Troops under his Command, made such Haste away, that the next Day he passed the Save, and retired to Gradisca in Sclavonia. It seems the Prince was informed some Days before, that the Turks had a Design to come and surprize him; but he despised the Intelligence, and indeed thought it false, because he had received Advices lately, that proved intirely groundless. This Prince's Retreat has obliged the Count d'Esterhasi, and the Count de Herberstein, who acted also in Turkish Croatia, to retire in like manner with their Troops.

They write from Servia, That the Count de Seckendorff has detached the Velt-Marshal Count de Khevenhuller, with 6 Regiments of Horse, 100 Hussars, 20 Companies of Grenadiers, and 4 Field-Pieces, to invest Widdin.

Colonel Lentulus, whom the Count de Seckendorff sent before-hand with a Detachment of Horse, to view the Passes into the Province of Servia, writes Word, that the Turks had abandoned the Town and Fort of Novi Passera; whereupon he advanced afterwards to the Frontiers of Albania and Macedonia, where he found the Inhabitants disposed to take Arms against the Porte, if they had but the German Militia to support them.

Letters of the 11th from Brussels say, that the Imperial, British, and Dutch Commissaries, assembled at Antwerp to settle a Tariff of Commerce, have been hitherto employed in paying and re-paying Visits: And they mention a Report, that the Emperor has sent Orders to the Directors of the Ostend Company, to sell to the Dutch, or to the Swedes, the Compters, Factories, &c. belonging to the Settlements which that Company had formed at Bengal, &c. in the East-Indies.

They add, that the late tempestuous Weather has done a great deal of Damage on the Coasts of Flanders.

Letters dated last Sunday from the Hague, say, that his Excellency Mr. Walpole returned thither that Evening from Amsterdam, with his Lady.

There are Advices from Petersburg, dated the 23d ult. O. S. which say, that they have had no Express from Count Munich's Army since the 15th of that Month, so that they fear his Couriers have been intercepted by the Turks or Tartars; and that the last Letters from General Lascy, which are dated the 2d say, that during his March towards Arrabat, the Turkish Fleet, consisting of 3 Men of War, 13 Gallies, 70 Half-Gallies, and several other Vessels, cannonaded the Russian Fleet, consisting of 217 Gallies and Flat-Bottoms, which returned the Fire with such Fury, as obliged the Turks to sheer off.

His Most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange being to make his Publick Entry next Thursday Se'nnight at Breda, great Preparations are making there for his Reception; such as Triumphal Arches, Fire-Works, and a Theatre on which the Prince is to receive Homage.

Extract of a Letter, dated Philadelphia, June 2.

On Sunday Evening laſt Capt. Galley, and other ſmaller Veſſels; and that after a long and ſmart Fight, the Hearle Frigate of London, and a Ship belonging to Briſtol, and ſeveral Veſſels belonging to Boſton, were all taken by the Spaniards. Capt. Harle of the Hearle Frigate, died in the Bay before the Action.

We have the following Account from Capt. The whole Damage is computed at about 6 Millions of Florins, in Sterling about Six hundred Thouſand Pounds.

Letters from Guernſey of the 12th Inſtant, mention, That upon Arrival of the News of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales being brought to Bed, Lieutenant Governor Graham immediately cauſed the Caſtle Flag to be diſplay'd, and 21 Cannon to be fired, and gave a handſome Entertainment upon the Occaſion.

The Night concluded with great Rejoicings, Illuminations, and a Play was performed with great Applauſe, by ſome Actors from the Engliſh Theatres.

The moſt Delightful Fragrant TINCTURE for the Breath, Teeth and Gums.

AT once uſing makes the BREATH moſt charmingly ſine, ſweet, and pleaſant, the Teeth perfectly white, clean and beautiful, and is the moſt excellent Cure for the SCURVY in the GUMS in the World.

It infallibly preſerves the Breath, Teeth and Gums in the utmoſt Beauty and Perfection, if they are no Ways diſeaſed; and if they are, immediately rectifies all their Defects: the ſame Minute it is uſed it makes the moſt offenſive breath ſmell incomparably fine and charming, and in a ſhort Time ſo effectually cures, that a diſagreeable Breath will not remain.

It inſtantly makes the blackeſt and moſt foul Teeth extremely white and delicately beautiful; infallibly preſerves them from decaying, and thoſe a little decay'd from becoming worſe; abſolutely cures the Scurvy in the Gums, be it ever ſo inveterate, cauſing the Fleſh to grow up to the Teeth even when almoſt eaten quite away, and aſſuredly faſtens the Teeth to Admiration. It is to be uſed but a few Drops at a Time, is exceeding pleaſant, and leaves a very grateful delectable Flavour in the Mouth.

In a Word, for moſt delightfully performing, and quickly curing an ill-ſcented Breath, for immediately making the blackeſt Teeth moſt excellently white, certainly faſtening them when looſe, effectually preſerving them from rotting and decaying, and infallibly curing the Scurvy in the Gums, it has not its Equal in the Univerſe, as all the Quality and Principal Gentry, who uſe it acknowledge.

It is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop, at the Bible and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, at 3 s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The moſt Noble ELIXIR,

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men and the Hyſterick Diſeaſe or Vapours in Women.

IN three Days Time demonſtrates to every one who takes it, that it is abſolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of thoſe perplexing Indiſpoſitions, even in the higheſt and moſt grievous Degree, where not any Part of the reigns, where Reaſoning is interrupted or depriv'd, and even the Mind is confuſed with terrible Perturbation, Anxiety, Deſpondency, even to Diſtraction, and the Body afflicted with almoſt innumerable Ailments.

'Tis ſurprizing to ſee how ſoon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR, (even a few Doſes of it only) entirely cures the vaſt Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new Train of chearful and pleaſant Ideas, inſtead of thoſe deep and black Thoughts, thoſe direful Apprehenſions that ſo tenaciouſly dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Underſtanding, and deſtroy'd all Notion of ever receiving Comfort again, for it occaſions a Flow of diſturb'd Spirits, and cauſes bright Gleams of Joy to break in the Heart, and chace away the whole Load of depreſſed and melancholy Imaginations ſo effectually, that the Patients are ſoon reliev'd both in Body and Mind; and now enjoying perfect health, free and lively Spirits, ſteady, ſerene and gay Thoughts, are as much amaz'd that they could be chain'd down to ſuch a dark Way of Thinking, ſuch dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances as before, they were hopeleſs of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this NOBLE ELIXIR is ſuddenly and infallibly curing HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the HYSTERICK DISEASE or VAPOURS in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances even after all other Remedies have proved fruitleſs, is inexpreſſible, as the vaſt Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmoſt Satisfaction declare.

It occaſions no Manner of Diſorder, is pleaſant to take, a few Drops of it are a Doſe, and is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyſhop, at the Roſe and Crown, againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.
